

Deb Haag has been doing my long arm quilting the last two years.

She works with you on designs and has even worked some samples beforehand.

She is timely in turnaround (and calls and texts) and her pricing is competitive or better than others I've used here. She replaced my prior quilter who had to retire due to health issues and they had worked together also.

I have been very pleased with her work and highly recommend her.